Bali,

The famed Island of the Gods, with its varied landscape of hills and mountains, rugged coastlines and sandy beaches, lush rice terraces and barren volcanic hillsides all providing a picturesque backdrop to its colourful, deeply spiritual and unique culture, stakes a serious claim to be paradise on earth.

With world-class surfing and diving, a large number of cultural, historical and archaeological attractions, and an enormous range of accommodations, this is one of the world's most popular island destinations and one which consistently wins travel awards. Bali has something to offer a very broad market of visitors from young back-packers right through to the super-rich.

Bali is one of more than 17,000 islands in the Indonesian archipelago and is located just over 2 kilometres (almost 1.5 miles) from the eastern tip of the island of Java and west of the island of Lombok. The island, home to about 4 million people, is approximately 144 kilometres (90 mi.) from east to west and 80 kilometres (50 mi.) north to south.

The word "paradise" is used a lot in Bali and not without reason. The combination of friendly, hospitable people, a magnificently visual culture infused with spirituality and (not least) spectacular beaches with great surfing and diving have made Bali Indonesia's unrivalled number one tourist attraction.

Region

- South Bali (Kuta, Bukit Peninsula, Canggu, Denpasar, Jimbaran, Legian, Nusa Dua, Sanur, Seminyak, Tanah Lot) The most visited part of the island by far, with Kuta Beach and chic Seminyak.
- Central Bali (Ubud, Bedugul, Tabanan) The cultural heart of Bali and the central mountain range.
- West Bali (Negara, Gilimanuk, Medewi Beach, Pemuteran, West Bali National Park) Ferries to Java and the West Bali National Park.
- North Bali (Lovina, Singaraja) Quiet black sand beaches and the old capital city.
- East Bali (Amed, Besakih, Candidasa, Kintamani, Klungkung, Mount Agung, Padang Bai, Tirta Gangga) Laid back coastal villages, an active volcano and the mighty Mount Agung
- South-eastern Islands (Nusa Lembongan, Nusa Penida, Nusa Ceningan) Quiet offshore islands in the southeast

TOURING & JOURNEY

CITIES

- Denpasar, a bustling city, the administrative centre and transport hub of the island but not a major tourist destination
- Candidasa, a quiet coastal town, the Bali Aga and gateway to the east coast
- Kuta, surfer central, by far the most heavily developed area in Bali. Lots of shopping and night-life and the centre of lower-end party culture on Bali
- Jimbaran, sea-side resorts, a nice sheltered beach and seafood restaurants south of Kuta
- Legian, located between Kuta and Seminyak; also the name of Kuta's main street
- Lovina, beautiful black volcanic sand beaches and coral reefs and wild dolphins
- Ubud, the centre of art and dance in the foothills, with several museums, the monkey forest and lots of arts and crafts shops

Over the years, the grace and charm of Bali and its people have earned this tiny Indonesian island numerous sobriquets of praise and homage. Generations of foreign visitors, mesmerized by the placid lifestyles and fantastic rituals of the gregarious Balinese have sought to capture the island's spirit with poetic labels.
